

124th NYS Vols The Orange Blossoms

Saturday, May 16, 2026

2:00 pm - 4:00 pm

Sponsored by the Montague Association for the Restoration of Community History

The Historic Foster Armstrong House, CR521/320 River Road, Montague, NJ 07827

Local author and historian Michael J. Worden presents this original Civil War program in character as a veteran of the 124th, reflecting years after the war as he prepares to return to Gettysburg for the dedication of the regiment's monument. Researched and written in collaboration with author and historian Linda Zimmermann, the presentation offers a deeply personal and historically grounded perspective on the soldier's experience.
